Final Report now available: IIU concludes investigation into collision between suspect and WPS cruiser

On March 7, 2019, the Independent Investigation Unit (IIU) had issued a media release advising that it had concluded its investigation into an incident in which a man was struck and injured by a police cruiser as he attempted to run from officers. It had concluded no charges should be brought against the Winnipeg Police Service officer driving the car.

The final report of the IIU was not released as charges were pending before the Courts. Charges have now been disposed and the IIU final report is now available on the IIU's website. The details of this investigation were first announced on October 26, 2018.
