

December 5, 2017

IIU concludes investigation into reported domestic assault by RCMP officer

Manitoba's Independent Investigation Unit (IIU) has concluded its investigation into an allegation of domestic assault by an RCMP officer and has determined there is no evidence an assault occurred.

A complaint was made to RCMP "D" Division by a third party concerning an incident that allegedly occurred on August 31, 2017, and on other dates as well, and involved a male officer and a relative. Although there was no allegation of injury, the IIU civilian director determined it was in the public interest for the agency to investigate.

In his report on the investigation, IIU civilian director Zane Tessler noted the affected person denied being assaulted by the officer on August 31 or at any other time, and denied disclosing to the third party anything concerning any violent act by the officer.

The civilian director's complete report is available online at www.iiumanitoba.ca

The details of this investigation were first released on September 6, 2017.

-30-

Media inquiries may be directed to:
Barbara Czech
Communications, Independent Investigation Unit
204-803-9644
bczech@mts.net